THRICE AS NICE

The American received three bids to the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2015, when four conference squads made the field. SMU made its second-straight appearance as the league's automatic selection, while UCF and UConn both received at-large bids.

THE AMERICAN IN THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

Since the league formed in 2013, American teams own an 9-12-5 record in the NCAA Championship. The furthest an American squad has advanced is the quarterfinals, with UConn reaching the round in 2013.

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS

No. 2 seed SMU repeated as the American Athletic Conference tournament champions on Nov. 10, prevailing by a 5-4 margin on penalty kicks over No. 1 seed UCF in a 1-1 draw. The Mustangs reached the championship match following a 2-1 double-overtime win over No. 6 seed Memphis, while the Knights advanced over No. 4 UConn 3-2 in double overtime in the other semifinal contest.

UCF and SMU each earned a share of the 2018 Regular Season Champions on Friday, Nov. 2. The teams both accumulated 16 points during conference play. SMU earned the honor for the third time in the past four years, while UCF's regular season title became the program's first since the Knights earned the honor in Conference USA in 2004.

NATION'S FINEST

After posting a 45-point, 20-goal season to rank second nationally, UCF junior Cal Jennings capped his record-setting season as a MAC Hermann Trophy Semifinalist. Jennings was one of just 15 players nationally to make the semifinal list for the nation's top collegiate soccer honor and the first-ever semifinalist from UCF.

HUSKY NATION

For the second-consecutive year, UConn led the nation in home attendance for men's soccer. The Huskies totaled 38,555 fans for the season, averaging 3,213 per game, and boasted two of the nation's top 20 single-game highs. UConn's Aug. 26 contest against Niagara and Oct. 20 game against Temple both drew 4,840 fans. It was a fitting end of an era for UConn, as the Huskies began demolition on Joseph J. Morrone Stadium at the conclusion of the season.

SUPER SCORERS

The American Athletic Conference boasted two of the nation's most prolific goal-scorers this season in UCF's Cal Jennings and UConn's Abdou Mbacke Thiam. The forwards both finished ranked in the top five nationally in points and goals: Jennings was second with 20 goals and 45 points, while Mbacke Thiam was fifth with 15 goals and fourth with 40 points.

SETTING THE STANDARD

UCF junior Cal Jennings broke the American Athletic Conference single-season points record on Oct. 6 with his two-goal outing against Tulsa. With 45 points on the season, Jennings snapped the previous record of 31 held by three standouts: UConn's Cyle Larin (2013), Temple's Jorge Gomez Sanchez (2015, 2016) and SMU's Garrett McLaughlin (2017).

Jennings then became The American's single-season goal recordholder on Oct. 16 when the Knights downed FGCU 5-1. With his third hat trick of the season, Jennings surpassed the previous record of 14 goals in a season held by UConn's Cyle Larin, Temple's Jorge Gomez Sanchez and SMU's Garrett McLaughlin.

CAREER CONSISTENCY

UConn senior Abdou Mbacke Thiam closes his collegiate career as The American's career leader in both goals and points. Mbacke Thiam shattered the points mark, finishing with 110 in his four years, more than 30 points ahead of the next highest mark, to go along with 46 goals.

FIRST CAP FOR COUNTRY

Former USF Bull Ben Sweat, a 2013 American Athletic Conference First Team selection, made his debut for the U.S. Men's National Team on Oct. 11. The defender earned his first cap in Tampa, his hometown, and saw 14 minutes of action. Sweat was a member of the 2013 American Athletic Conference championship squad before being selected in the 2014 MLS SuperDraft. He currently plays for NYCFC and has made 53 MLS appearances.

WELCOME TO THE AMERICAN

The conference welcomed Brian Rowland to Temple in 2018 in his first season as head coach of the Owls. Rowland joined Temple after eight seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Maryland, with the last three as Associate Head Coach. As a four-year starter at UMBC, Rowland is the career and single-season record holder for shutouts in net and was inducted into the Retrievers' Hall of Fame in 2014. Rowland was tabbed as one of seven new Division I men's head coaches to watch by TopDrawerSoccer in the preseason.

FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING

For the first time in American Athletic Conference history, UCF earned top billing in the Preseason Coaches' Poll, released on August 14. The Knights received a league-best four first place votes to edge SMU by five points. UCF advanced to the conference championship match last season against the Mustangs, and placed a conference-best three players on the American Preseason All-Conference Team (Cal Jennings, Yoni Sorokin, Andreas Steineger).

Email Distribution

Media members may access PDF versions of the complete daily press release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, on TheAmerican.org. Regular updates of the release will be distributed via e-mail from the conference office. To be included on the distribution list, send an e-mail request to Megan Erbes at merbes@theamerican.org.

Weekly Awards

The American names an Offensive, Defensive, Goalkeeper and Rookie of the Week each Monday during the season, along with a five-player Honor Roll. Winners are chosen from nominations provided by conference communications contacts. The information will be available from the conference office via release as well as on the league web site.

Annual Awards

The American Athletic Conference will name all-conference teams and individual honors following the conclusion of the regular season. The awards are chosen by a vote of the league's eight head coaches.
